The uniform adopted is neat and well made, and makes an excellent school-room suit. These are furnished at manufacturers' prices. Gentlemen who purpose to attend this school, and who find it necessary to economize in clothing, are advised to consider this carefully before furnishing themselves with a complete outfit.

Special students, i. e., those not intending to graduate, may enter at any time and take such branches of art as they may choose—crayon, oil, pastel, china painting, water color, or decorative painting.

A class in out door sketching will be formed in the fall and spring terms.

Illustrated lectures on art will be given each week, and students taking the course are required to attend and take notes. Other students are recommended to attend these lectures.

During each term of the year, every student taking the Senior course must present one essay of at least 500 words, and on graduation a thesis of 900 words, or more, on some subject relating to the fine arts. These will be retained by the school.

Easels are provided by the school, and numerous other conveniences.

A large and varied assortment of studies is provided for the use of the students free, but under no circumstances are they to be removed from the studio without special permission from the teacher.

Special rates on painting and drawing material have been secured to art students.

Visitors will not be admitted to the studio during class hours.

During Commencement week, a public exhibition of the work of the students will be given, at which time the work of those taking the regular course will be examined.

NORMAL SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

This school, which constitutes the music department of the State Normal school, aims at the development and cultivation of musical talent in its broadest sense.

THE COURSE OF STUDY.

The course of study is similar to that of the leading conservatories of this country and Europe, and is such as will enable students to secure the best results in as short a time as possible. It affords not in music alone, but also in other branches of study, an excellent opportunity for students to secure such intellectual development as will form a substantial basis for future attainments.

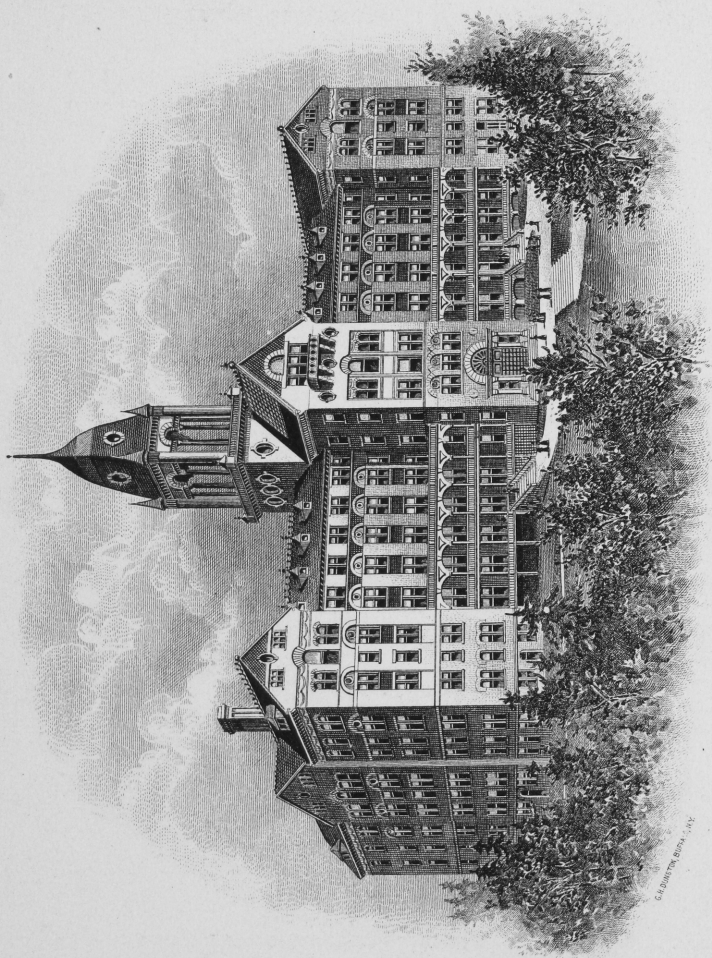

PIANO.

The course of study for piano will comprise technical exercises such as are necessary to give perfect control of the muscles of the finger, hand, and arm. Studies by the best known writers which are designed to further develop the execution, and to unite technical work with the higher forms of musical expression. With these are given many of the compositions of the best writers of the past and present. Regular examinations will be held in this as in other departments, and no student will be allowed to enter a higher grade until he has passed a satisfactory examination in the preceding one.

VOICE.

The course of study for the voice includes exercises in breathing, tone production, enunciation, scale and arpeggio exercises, solfeggio and sight reading, ballads, arias, oratorio and operatic selections, etc.

Blank Page

NORTH HALL.

VIOLIN.

The study of the violin requires exercises in position, manner of holding violin, and bow, tuning, etc., exercises for left hand—scales, arpeggios, trills, embellishments; bowing exercises—legato, detached bowing, martellato, bounding bow, etc.; etudes, harmonics, solos, duetts, and ensemble playing.

HARMONY AND COMPOSITION

Will be systematically taught in classes, as well as other branches, including all kinds of instruments.

INSTRUCTION.

In most cases the instruction will be in classes of two, unless the student prefers private lessons, this being the plan of the leading Conservatories, and is considered to be the best. Each student not only receives his share of individual attention, but also has the benefit of the other's instruction which is often of the greatest value to the listener.

DIPLOMAS.

Diplomas are given to those who have finished the course to the satisfaction of the faculty.

ADVANTAGES.

The advantages offered by this school are such as can not be had outside of a school of this kind. Students coming in contact with some of the best teachers in the country and being associated with each other in the work gives pleasure and inspiration to all. Aside from the private instruction the students have the privilege of free class instruction in Theory, Analysis, History of Music, Choral Practice, Sight Reading, Music in public schools, also lectures, recitals, and concerts, given by teachers, and celebrated artists. All of these are of the greatest benefit to students.

MR. HAMLIN E. COGSWELL,

The Musical Director, who has so successfully conducted this school for the past five years, will have general oversight of the work of the school, and will give instruction in Voice, Harmony, Instrumentation, and all general class work.

MR. JULIUS ORMAY,

Of the Paris Conservatory, and lately a pupil of the great composer and teacher MORETZ MOSZKOWSKI, will have charge of the piano department. MR. ORMAY is an artist and a thorough and conscientious teacher, and those who study under his instruction will enjoy superior advantages.

MR. MAXMILIAN LICHTENSTEIN,

A pupil of the greatest living violinist, Joachim, will have charge of the violin department. Any one who may desire to study this favorite instrument under a master will find it to their interest to their interests to avail themselves of MR. LICHTENSTEIN'S instruction, who ranks as one of the foremost in the country.

EXPENSES.

The Normal School of Music affords unequaled inducements in the matter of expenses, being fortunately connected with the Mansfield State Normal School, thus making the expenses usually connected with such a school much less. The rates of tuition are low considering the superior advantages afforded. This together with the low rates for rooms and board, rent of instruments, etc., makes it worthy the most careful consideration, and on account of the large number of students attending this and the Normal School, we are enabled to sustain many of the best entertainments, concerts, etc., thus enabling students to hear and know what others are doing in the musical world. The following are the

For admission to the Senior class of the Elementary Course, the student must pass an examination by the State Board of Examiners in all the branches of the Junior year, except elements of school management and methods of teaching the common branches.

Persons outside of the school, such as teachers, and graduates of high schools, if qualified to do so, may enter this examination and obtain a certificate of admission to the Senior class.

Students who are not qualified for entrance to the Senior class, but who are prepared to pass out of six of the subjects of the Junior year, will be examined by the State Board of Examiners in those subjects, and this examination will be final in this school for all the candidates who pass all of the six subjects. The six subjects on which students in this school may be examined in June, 1894, are these: Geography, complete; History of the United States; Physiology; Spelling; Writing; Vocal Music.

For graduation the members of the Senior class of the Elementary Course are examined by the State Board of Examiners on the subjects of the Senior year.

Examinations in the College Preparatory and Scientific courses are conducted by the State Board of Examiners at their annual examinations in June. Graduates of the Elementary Course can be examined upon any of the studies of these courses at any State examination, and have the studies recorded on their diplomas. No student of the school is allowed to enter any examination by the State Board until he has passed the requisite examination by the Faculty.

PRINCIPAL'S PRIZE.

A prize of $100 is offered by the Principal of the school to the student who completes the College Preparatory Course, taking the classical studies, and maintains the highest average standing in those studies, during the year 1893-94.

DIPLOMAS.

A student, graduating in the Elementary Course, receives a diploma, in which are named the branches studied, and by which he is constituted Bachelor of Elements; the diplomas of those graduating in the Scientific Course enumerate the distinctive branches of the course and constitute their holders Bachelors of Sciences.

Regular graduates who have continued their studies for two years after graduating, and who have practiced their profession for two full annual terms* in the common schools of this state, on presenting to the Faculty and Board of Examiners a certificate of good moral character, and skill in the art of teaching from the Board or Boards of Directors in whose employ they have taught, countersigned by the County Superintendent, may receive second diplomas, constituting them Masters in the several studies embraced in the course in which they graduated, and conferring upon them the corresponding professional degrees.

For conditions of obtaining diplomas in the Art, and the Music Departments, see courses of study in those departments.

The Normal School law makes it the duty of the State Board of Examiners to grant Diplomas or State Certificates to actual teachers of common schools, without their having attended the Normal Schools as students, upon the following conditions:

1. The applicant must be twenty-one years of age, of good moral character, and must have taught successfully during three consecutive terms, in common schools of this state. The proof of good moral character and of satisfactory teaching for the requisite term, must be a certificate from the proper Board or Boards of Directors, signed by the President and Secretary, and countersigned by the proper County Superintendent or Superintendents.

2. The examination may be in either the Elementary or the Scientific Course, as the applicant may elect, according to the list of studies as printed in the circulars of the State Normal Schools, and approved by the State Superintendent; or in such other studies, as may, by the Board of Examiners, be deemed equivalent.

3. Each applicant is required to prepare and present to the State Board of Examiners an original thesis, of not less than six folio pages of manuscript, on some professional subject, which thesis is to be retained at the school where the examination takes place.

4. The examination and certificate are without expense to the applicant, and the certificate is full evidence of qualification to teach the branches therein named, in any part of the state without further examination.

5. Practical teachers, attending examinations at State Normal Schools for the purpose of securing State Certificates, are examined separately from the regular students; and both the State Board of Examiners and the Faculty of the school at which the examination is held, take part in the examination, all being required to sign the certificate.

THE SCIENCE AND ART OF TEACHING.

The aim of the Normal school is to furnish competent teachers for the public schools of the state. The mental equipment of a teacher consists of (1) knowledge of the subject matter to be taught, (2) knowledge of the laws of mental action, and (3) knowledge of those methods of imparting instruction and of moving the will, which are in most complete harmony with the laws of mental action; this last knowledge may be either theoretical or practical. With the successful teacher it is both.

In this school, the student receives his knowledge of subject matter in his daily study and recitations; he acquires an elementary knowledge of the laws of mental action in the study of Psychology. In order to supply him with a theoretical knowledge of the best methods of imparting instruction and of moving the will, we give regular instruction in Methods and School Economy during the Preparatory, Junior and Senior years. Finally, to furnish him, as far as possible, with the needed practical skill, we introduce the Senior to the work of actual teaching in the Model School.

MODEL SCHOOL.

The Model School consists of pupils from six to sixteen years of age. The school is divided into eleven grades.

The design of the school is to give our students an opportunity to put into practice the theory and methods of instruction received in the course of professional work.

Students do their teaching under the constant direction of the Principal of the Training Department. A single term of such practice will do more for a student-teacher than years of school-room work without advice and criticism.

Once each week the whole class meet with the Principal of the model school to hear criticisms on their work.

Each student-teacher is also appointed critic for a period of at least two weeks. A written report of his observations is then handed to the Principal for inspection, and whatever is particularly worthy of note, or subject to criticism, is afterward discussed before the class.

The methods, the language, power of securing and holding attention, discipline, manner and teaching power, are noted and errors criticised.

Earnest effort is made to impress the fact that a poor disciplinarian cannot succeed in the school-room, and every principle relating to discipline is seriously and carefully discussed. During the year there are Senior class exhibitions of teaching, after which each student has an opportunity to make criticisms or ask advice.

READING ROOM.

One of the large and pleasant corner rooms of the Gymnasium building is used for a reference library and reading room. The room is supplied with cyclopædias and other books of references, and all the best magazines published in the country, besides many of the best weekly and daily papers. The room is open at stated hours every day of the week.

APPARATUS AND CABINET.

The science department is well supplied with the best modern apparatus which is constantly used by the classes in natural science. The cabinet contains a large collection of Geological and Biological specimens.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

The Athenæan and the Normal Literary Societies have a large membership and are both in a flourishing condition. They meet every Saturday evening. They jointly maintain a popular lecture course, and publish the Normal School Monthly. Both societies have elegant rooms and good libraries.

THE LECTURE COURSE.

The lectures and entertainments, given under the auspices of the Literary Societis, during the past year, were as follows :

Lecture by Leland T. Powers.

Lecture by Frank W. Gunsaulus.

Concert by the Temple Quartet, of Boston.

Lecture by Roberts Harper.

Lecture by Rev. E. D. Warfield.

Besides these lectures, several musical concerts have been given by the Faculty of the Normal School of Music; one concert by the Normal Glee Club, and a course of lectures on English Literature by members of the Normal School Faculty.

RELIGIOUS ASSOCIATIONS.

The Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. have organizations of the students which maintain weekly religious meetings.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION.

An Atheletic Association of the students has done a great deal to encourage and promote out-door sports. The base ball and foot ball teams of the school have made a fine record during the past year.

COLLEGE PREPARATORY ASSOCIATION.

This association is organized for the purpose of stimulating and encouraging young men and women of scholarly habits to prepare themselves for a college education. Through its corresponding secretaries, the association is supplied with catalogues of all the best colleges in the country. At the meetings of the association talks are given by members of the Faculty upon the advantages of a higher education, the possibilities of making one's way without much money, the colleges which offer the best advantages for particular classes of students, and interesting characteristics of college life.

LOCATION, BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS.

Mansfield is a fine rural village of 2,000 inhabitants, situated on the Tioga division of the Erie railroad, thirty-six miles from Elmira, N. Y. Its citizens are intelligent and enterprising. By special act of the legislature, no intoxicating liquors can be sold, nor billard tables kept, within a radius of two miles of the Normal school. The students are therefore protected from many temptations, to which they would be exposed in many other localities. The sanitary condition of the village is excellent. The altitude is sufficient for the purest air, the sewerage is complete, and pure water is brought from a mountain stream. The surrounding scenery, of hill, mountain, and valley, is very attractive. The Normal School buildings, located upon a hillside seventy-five feet above the main street of the village, presents a noble and imposing aspect. The school grounds have an area of ten acres. The lawns about the buildings are beautifully laid out and covered with a great variety of forest trees.

On the 12th of December, 1862, the Mansfield Classical Seminary was accepted by the State, and declared the State Normal School of the Fifth District. The seminary building, accepted by the State, was the main portion of what is now called the SOUTH HALL.

This is a brick structure, one hundred fifty feet in length by fifty feet in width. In this building are the gentlemen's dormitories, the office of the Principal, chapel, six recitation rooms, and the text-book library. This building, formerly the old seminary, was enlarged and remodeled in 1889. One hundred fifty feet north and the same distance east of the south hall, stands the

NORTH HALL.

This building is now in process of complete reconstruction from foundation to roof. The cut represents it as it will be, when finished, one of the finest school buildings in the country. The walls are of brick, the interior finishing of natural wood. All the material and workmanship are the very best. The building is two hundred seventy feet long by one hundred feet wide, and five stories high. It contains an elegant dining room, finished in oak, large enough to seat five hundred, the kitchen, bakery, etc., dormitories for the ladies, reception rooms, suits of rooms for the Art Department and for the Normal School of Music. Two stories of an ell projecting from the Northeast corner of the building, and completely removed from the other rooms, are set apart as an infirmary. They are completely furnished with every appliance for the care of the sick. The central part of the building, which is to be rebuilt and furnished this year, is to contain an elevator. The dormitories on every floor of both buildings are supplied with bath-tubs and everything needed for health and comfort. All the buildings are heated by steam. The cost of the North building when completed and furnished, will not be less than $150,000.00. Midway between the North and the South buildings is

ALUMNI HALL.

This is a brick building, fifty-four by one hundred seventeen feet, three stories high. It contains the Model School rooms, recitation rooms, the society rooms, and a concert hall which occupies one entire story. This building was completed in 1886 at a cost of $25,000. In the rear of the South building stands the GYMNASIUM.

This is a fine structure; it is a frame building, fifty by one hundred thirty feet. It contains a large drill hall, fifty by one hundred feet, and four spacious rooms adjoining, one for library and reading room, one for the military company, one for cabinet specimens, and one for ladies' dressing room. The drill hall is well furnished with apparatus. This building was erected in 1888 at a cost of $7,000.

By an Act of the Legislature, the following appropriations are made by the State to Normal Students and Normal Graduates:

1. Each student over 17 years of age, who shall sign a paper declaring his intention to teach in the Common Schools of the State, shall receive Fifty Cents per week.
2. Each student who, upon graduation, shall sign an agreement to teach in the Common Schools of the State two full school years, shall receive the sum of Fifty Dollars.
3. Any student to secure these benefits, must attend the school at least twelve consecutive weeks, and he must receive regular instruction in the science and art of teaching in a special class devoted to that object for the whole time such an allowance
